To book a place at Sunday Mass and Feast days from 27th Dec --Parish Sisters -Daughters of the Sacred Heart 15 Horeb Rd Morrision-07380896874

My dear Parishioners,

A very Happy and blessed New year to you and your loved ones.

Mass and events in Church from Dec 27th

New regulations are to be implemented for Places of Worship from Dec 27th.

Regulations mean a return to booking system, one household per bench, this will be due to the social distancing regulation whereby we return to a one bench gap between households. Obviously this is something no one wanted but as we are all aware there is serious concerns about the rising figures of Covid and the rapid transmission of the Omicron.

It will be necessary to book once again through the Parish sisters for the masses indicated on the newsletter

Prayers There have been a number of deaths this week at the hospital 2 Christmas day, 1 Boxing Day, 1 on 27th and 2 on 28th. Please pray for - Veronica Sullivan, Pat Reynolds, Roselyn Mahoney, Fred and also Theresa Gaynor. May they rest in peace.

Thanks

Many thanks to all those who were able to help over the Christmas weekend celebrations

Envelopes

Many of our parishioners have kindly set up standing order to the parish which is a great help. There are some who prefer to use the boxes. Please note that with the huge switch to standing orders ALL numbers have changed. Please look for your name on the box if you pay tax.

Surplus boxes are now available for those who do not use Standing order and do not pay tax but like to use an envelope.

Please see Paul or Pauline if you need help with a box or setting up a standing order.

Help with Stewarding

Please indicate to the Sisters when you book your seat if you are willing to help with stewarding

Readers at Mass

Only 10 people returned the rota form indicating their willingness to make a commitment to read at Sunday Mass. Often there is no one to read at the 8pm Mass. If you are willing to read at the Mass please indicate this to the sisters when you book your Mass so that you have time to prepare and to check the book

Sinulog 2022. So far only three families have booked for the special Sinulog Mass . There are only 17 benches in total available for the additional Mass at 1pm to mark the Feast of the Santo Nino Sunday January 16th

Home visits with holy communion

I have be started my Christmas communions but with the hospital being busy and the rapidly rising and highly transmissible covid variant, it is safer to limit and spread out visits and contact with our Sick parishioners so as to prevent cross infection as I await for various lateral flow tests and PCR. At present all our housebound sick are stable and there is no imminent danger of end of life. Any sudden deterioration and I will immediately attend when called. We have a difficult month ahead of us and there is a great need to be vigilant with those who are already sick and vulnerable. I know I can rely on your full understanding at this time. And at least all of the sick have had a last one or two visits since we were able to resume home visits.

Forth coming Funerals

Thursday 13 Jan Patrick

Monday 17 Fred

Thursday 20 Theresa Gaynor

Novena to the Santo Nino begins on Friday 6pm . for the full details of the daily times please see Jadie and Rowenna. Those wishing to take a part ie Singing and reading and booking a place need to contact Fr Jason.

Help needed If anyone is able to help next Sunday to help dismantle the decorations it would be appreciated.

Year Books for Wales are available £2.50.

Fr Juan will be with us until January 14th. I am sure that all of us are delighted that he is with us for Christmas and has been able to help with Masses and Confessions. We are hoping that Fr Juan ill be with us for two weeks of Easter.

Mass Christmas week 10.30am Many thanks to our daily Mss goers for accommodating the mass time change this Christmas week from 9.30am – 10.30m. It has been a great hep to have a little bit of a lay in. The normal 9.30am Mass will resume on Monday 3rd Jan.
